

I could not have been more delighted with my choir. It was absolutely my dream come true to be married in Australia but to be able to feel like I was firmly back in Wales. To walk down the aisle to Calon Lan is a moment I will remember for the rest of my life. The ceremony was absolutely my baby and I poured my heart and soul into it. I found Ben, Ron, Murray and all the boys to be SO kind, helpful, suggestive, accommodating etc. I can't actually believe what they managed to pull off and achieve. It still brings tears to my eyes. I also have had almost all of my guests commenting on how the choir was their favourite part of the day and I've heard that when I Still Call Australia Home was boomed out, that there was not a dry eye in the house. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for making a long standing dream come true.
